Call for Papers/Abstracts

We would like to invite you to participate in Knowledge Management (KM) Conference 2021, which will be hosted by HfTL University, Leipzig, Germany on 30 June - 3 July 2021. The KM Conference 2021 will provide a showcase for the latest research in practice and pedagogical topics that focus on knowledge management, cybersecurity, learning, and information technology, as well as how they are used to improve and sustain quality in organizations. You are invited to share your research on the conference themes or other relevant KM research with the scholars and professionals attending the KM2021 International Conference. Papers covering related academic, technical, and practitioners' issues are also encouraged. Submit a paper/abstract at:

<https://www.iiakm.org/conference/KM2021/index.php>

Important Dates/Deadlines (Extended)

- Submission deadline of complete papers or extended abstracts: March 1, 2021
- Reviews and responses to authors: March 31, 2021
- Submission of the final version of accepted papers or abstracts: May 14, 2021

What to Submit

- Full research/pedagogy papers (including work in progress or doctoral dissertation research)
